

Antoinette Goodwin, Ph.D.

Canal Point
15 Trumbull Court
Princeton, NJ 08540
Telephone: 609-921 -7977

Courts of Red Bank
130 Maple Avenue
Building 9, Suite B-1
Red Bank NJ 07701
Telephone: 609-240-2912

E-mail Address: ag@agcounseling.com
Phone: Fax Number: 732-222
-9112609-951-9449

Professional Experience: Practice

May 1993 to Present: Private Practice

January 2003 until present: DBA Heritage Center for Mind, Body & Spirit

September 1993 until January 2002: Private Practice in New York City

September 1995 until January 2002: Director of Goodwin Center for Mind, Body & Spirit, LLC, New York City and Central New Jersey

Summer of 1993 until Summer of 1995: Founding Site Director of Blanton-Peale Counseling Center in Freehold, New Jersey

September 1992 until May 1993: Group therapist with a clergy consultation service at the Institutes of Religion & Health, New York City

September 1989 until Spring 1993: Staff Psychotherapist at Blanton Peale Counseling Center, New York City

September 1985-May1986: Chaplain at Somerset Medical Center, Somerville, NJ, caring for patients and their families pre- and post-operatively, for terminally ill patient and their families and for emergency room and intensive care unit victims of automobile accidents and violent crime

Professional Experience: Consulting

October 2003 until present: In my capacity as a clinician, a member of an ecclesiastical committee with the responsibility of screening psychological reports written in the care process for inquirers into the ministry and candidates for ordination

September 2000 until present: In New Jersey during the time that I opened and was th(sole psychotherapist of a Blanton-Peale Counseling Center site, practicing alone as the Goodwin Center for Mind, Body & Spirit, LLC and the Heritage Center for Mind, Body and Spirit, respectively I have been an EAR affiliate and in-

network therapist for ValueOptions

Summer 1997-1999: Speaker for and facilitator of a group of ministers in the Monmouth County Clergy Association

September 1996 until present: Consultant to clergymen and clergywomen in the midst of serious interpersonal conflicts, eg. scapegoating and various ongoing challenges to their leadership within their congregations

September 1996 until present: Consultant to clergy facing both everyday and extraordinary problems at work and in their families

Professional Experience: Teaching

June 27 to July 1, 2004:

Seminar Leader for the 63rd Annual Institute of Theology, Princeton Theological Seminary, A joint institute with the board of ministry of the Church of Scotland. Seminal title: "Me, Myself & God;" Seminar designed to contribute to pastors' capacity to inspire others' faith in themselves and the god of their understanding through counseling and care practices with their congregants

Fall Semesters of 2000-2005: Visiting Lecturer to the faculty of Union Theological Seminary, teaching courses to professional and graduate students introducing pastoral care & counseling theory and practice, teaching pastoral care and counseling with alcoholics, addicts and their families and on empowering their various ministries by understanding the psychoanalytic development of Self- and God-representations through the vicissitudes of individuals' developmental life stages

1989-1999:

Guest Lecturer, Marble Collegiate Church, 5th Avenue, NYC, courses on parenting

1990-1991: Facilitator of parenting workshops, St. Peter's Episcopal Church

1988-1989: Visiting Lecturer, Princeton University, Department of Religion, for a psychology and religion course

1987-1988: Teaching Assistant, Princeton University, Department of Religion in a psychology and religion course

1985-1986: Research Assistant in Psychology & Religion, Princeton University, for a psychoanalytic paper on the question of whether Alcoholics Anonymous should be classified as a religion

1982-1984: Harrison County Catholic Schools, Notre Dame High School, Clarksburg, West Virginia, Teacher of English

1973-1982: Enfield Public Schools, Enfield, Connecticut, Teacher of English

Education

2004-2005: Rutgers University: 40 Continuing Educational Credits in Geriatrics

1997 & 1998: Center for Mind-Body Medicine, Washington, DC, Beginner and Advanced Certificates in training for the practice of mind-body techniques to reduce stress, heal illness and aid self-regulation

1995: Princeton Theological Seminary, PhD (Dissertation: "The Father of Personal Prehistory: A Psychoanalytic and Psychotherapeutic Study of Women's Search for a Living Faith" Comprehensive Examination Fields: Personality Theory, Practical Theology, Theology and the Personality Disciplines and 1993: Blanton Peale Graduate Institute, Certificates in Pastoral Psychotherapy and Marriage & Family Therapy (Graduation with honors; Certificate in recognition of the outstanding writing of an optional theoretical paper, "'Who Knows the Interpretation of a Thing,' Ecclesiastes 8:1"

1991: Eastern Group Psychotherapy Training Institute, an affiliate of the American Group Psychotherapy Association, Certificate in Group Psychotherapy

1988: Princeton Theological Seminary, ThM (psychology of the religious personality)

1987: Princeton Theological Seminary, MDiv (pastoral care and counseling) 1978-1980: Springfield College, 15 hours toward Masters in Community Psychology

1973: Springfield College, B.S. (Honors) Secondary Education, English

1966-1968: Alderson Broaddus College, Two years of nursing school in a four year liberal arts program for the B.S.
Publications

"Identity, Love and the Imaginary Father," Pastoral Psychology Volume 49, Number 5, May 2001

"Freud and Erikson: Their Contributions to the Psychology of God-Images," Pastoral Psychology Volume 47, Number 2, 1998

"The Right to Remain Silent," Pastoral Psychology Volume 41, Number 6, July 1993

Book Reviews: The Princeton Seminary Bulletin, Volume XIX 1998, et al; Journal of Religion and Health, Volume 36, Number 1, Spring 1997; Koinonia, Volume 1.2, Fall 1989

Professional Affiliations

American Association of Marriage and Family Counselors Clinical Member and Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in New Jersey

The Center for Mind-Body Medicine, Washington, DC Certified for Mind-Body Medical Practices

American Association of Pastoral Counselors, Fellow
Society for Pastoral Theology

New Brunswick Presbytery, Member of Committee on Preparation for Ministry

References

Donald E. Capps, PhD, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, NJ 08542

Ann Belford Ulanov, PhD, Union Theological Seminary, New York, NY 10027

Joyce Emery, Exec. Presbyter, Presbytery of New Brunswick, Trenton, NJ 08618